Employee compensation and benefits expenses were $165 million for the third quarter ended December 31, 2016, compared with $136 million for the third quarter ended December 31, 2015. Total adjusted operating expenses were $184 million for the third quarter ended December 31, 2016, an increase of 21% when compared with $153 million in adjusted operating expenses for the third quarter ended December 31, 2015. Adjusted employee compensation and benefits expenses were $159 million for the third quarter ended December 31, 2016, compared with $128 million for the third quarter ended December 31, 2015. This resulted in an adjusted awarded compensation ratio of 65.5% for the third quarter ended December 31, 2016, versus 65.2% for the third quarter ended December 31, 2015.

Total non-compensation expenses were $26 million for the third quarter ended both December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015. Non-compensation expenses remained flat primarily as a result of increases in general operating expenses during the third quarter fiscal 2017 that was essentially offset by third quarter fiscal 2016 costs incurred related to the Company's acquisitions that did not occur in the third quarter fiscal 2017.

Adjusted non-compensation expenses were $26 million for the third quarter ended December 31, 2016, compared with $24 million for the third quarter ended December 31, 2015. The rise in adjusted non-compensation expenses was primarily a result of an increase in general operating expenses.

This increase in revenues was partially offset by a decline in revenues for our transaction-based product lines.
